

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH
AT JABALPUR

CONC No. 7054 of 2025

(SMT. JAVIN ARA RIZVI Vs MRS. USHA PARMAR)

Dated : 19-09-2026

Shri Vidya Prasad - Advocate for the petitioner.

Notice was issued in this contempt petition vide order dated 04.12.2025 against Smt. Usha Parmar, Collector, District Panna.

The sole contemnor has not taken care to enter appearance in this contempt petition through counsel nor has filed any compliance report either through counsel or by any other mode.

A letter has been sent by the contemnor to the Registrar of this Court, which is dated 05.10.2025, mentioning therein that the notices of the contempt petition have been received and the In-charge Officer of Establishment Branch of her office has been appointed as contact officer to take care of this contempt petition.

It indicates that the sole respondent has got information of the contempt petition but in the classic indifference to the judicial process and to indifference to the contempt jurisdiction of this Court, she has sent a letter to the Registry of this Court informing that she has received the notices of the contempt petition and has deputed an officer to do the needful, thereafter nothing has been done by the respondent.

It appears that the respondent has adopted intent to avoid the contempt proceedings despite having received the notices and has even written a letter to the Registry of this Court which indicates her disinclination and her indifference towards the contempt jurisdiction of this Court.

This Court is satisfied that without issuing non-bailable warrant, it would not be possible to secure the cooperation of the respondent and secure compliance of the order.

Let non-bailable warrant be issued to secure the presence of sole respondent before this Court on 30.09.2026.

The warrant shall be executed through Superintendent of Police, Panna.

List on 30.09.2026.

(VIVEK JAIN)
JUDGE

nks