Chief Justice's Court

HON'BLE ARUN BHANSALI, CHIEF JUSTICE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.
2. In so far as the substantial relief granted by learned Single Judge regarding the release of the two corpus from the custody of their father against their wish, is concerned, in view of the undisputed statements of the corpus as recorded by the learned Single Judge, we do not find any reason to interfere with the order.
3. However, in so far as the award of compensation to the tune of Rs. 25 Lakh is concerned, the said order apparently has been passed as a consequence to the findings recorded by the learned Single Judge, without affording any opportunity on the said aspect to the appellant-State.
4. In that view of the matter on the limited aspect of the award of compensation, issue notice.
5. Respondent no. 1 is duly represented by learned counsel Mr. Dinesh Kumar Yadav, who undertakes to file Vakalatnama on behalf of respondents no. 2 and 3 also.
6. Issue notice to respondent no. 4 only.
7. Counter affidavit, if any, may be filed before the next date.
8. In the meanwhile and till further orders, the order passed by learned

Single Judge to the extent of awarding compensation to the tune of Rs. 25 Lakh, shall remain stayed, qua the appellants.
