4. Thereupon, the learned JMFC forwarded his request dated 02.04.2025 for initiating proceedings under the Act through learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Tis Hazari Courts to learned Registrar General, High Court of Delhi. Accordingly, based on the material placed on the record and the specific language and conduct detailed in the Order sheet dated 02.04.2025, being a part of the reference, the contempt reference was placed before this Court for further proceedings in accordance with law.

5. We have heard the complainant in FIR No.322/2013, Mr. Sudhir Arora, as well as the respondents. The complainant has drawn our attention to what he describes as a consistent pattern of derogatory conduct by the respondents across multiple litigations between the parties, which, according to him, has attracted warnings from courts on earlier occasions.

6. The respondents, appearing before us, have, however, sought to atone. With folded hands, they have tendered an unconditional apology, owning their lapse, and expressing genuine remorse for the incident in the court of the learned JMFC. They have affirmed, in no uncertain terms, that they had no intention to demean the dignity or authority of any court, and that they would maintain decorum in all future appearance before any Court. This sentiment is reiterated in affidavits filed by both respondents, which record their unconditional, voluntary, and good-faith apology, tendered with utmost respect to the Court.

7. Both the respondents further pray for forgiveness, submitting that they are senior citizens and respondent Hari Prakash Gupta is 91 years of age and suffers from 43% permanent physical impairment in relation to his left lower limb. In view thereof, the respondents have prayed for discharge and for dropping the contempt of court proceedings against them.

8. In view the submissions made by the respondents, their affidavits tendering an unconditional apology, their repeated undertakings given before this Court stating that they will maintain the respect and decorum in the Court in future and keeping in view the age of the respondents, the unconditional apology tendered by the respondents is, accordingly, accepted.

9. Before parting, it is necessary to remind the respondents that the language used in a Court of law is not a matter of choice or casualness, but one of unqualified propriety. Words that demean, insult or scandalize the Court have repercussions not merely for the dignity of the institution, but for the administration of justice itself. The respondents have been expressly warned in open Court that while they are being let off on this occasion in view of their apology and mitigating circumstances, any repetition of such conduct, in any Court, will invite the sternest action permissible in law.

10. The respondents are discharged from the present proceedings, with a clear caveat that any recurrence of such conduct in the future would be viewed with the utmost severity, uninfluenced by the present Order.

11. The present petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
