Arguments were made on either side, on the applications moved today, by the respective Senior Counsels. As the arguments touched upon the resolutions passed, against which also applications were pending, which were directed to be heard on completion of pleadings on 11.04.2023, this Court made a suggestion to continue the hearing on all applications so that orders could be made touching upon all the issues pending in the applications.

2. This Court had also made a suggestion to hear the matter on 22.03.2023, which has been declared as a Holiday owing to 'Telugu New Year Day'. Learned Senior Counsels appearing on either side agreed to make their submissions on the said day.

3. Since the issue in these applications, moved today, relate to the Election that was set in motion on 17.03.2023 and that now it has been agreed by all the parties concerned to have a special sitting on 22.03.2023 for making their submission on all their applications, a suggestion was put to the learned counsels appearing for the respondent Nos.1, 2 and 4 whether the announcement of results could be deferred. On instructions from the parties, the learned Senior Counsels appearing on behalf of respondent Nos.1, 2 and 4 made a submission that if the applications could be heard on 22.03.2023 and disposed of earlier by this Court, they would be willing to not declare the results till the disposal. The said submission is recorded and the applications shall stand adjourned to 22.03.2023.

4. List all the applications on 22.03.2023.
