NIA FILES CHARGESHEET AGAINST PFI NATIONAL CO-ORDINATOR FOR ARMS TRAINING

Following further investigations in the case registered against the Popular Front of India and its leaders and cadres, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) has filed a Charge-sheet against Ibrahim Puthanathani @ Ibrahim M K in New Delhi today. This follows the chargesheet filed by NIA on 18th March against the National Executive Council (NEC) members and senior cadres of the PFI.

Ibrahim was the National Coordinator and he was responsible for the organization and conduct of PFI Arms Training Camps across various States of the country on behalf of the Popular Front of India.

NIA probe has revealed that has that PFI cadres were being systematically trained in use of weapons in the guise of Physical Education (PE) classes in different parts of India and Ibrahim had designed the Syllabus for the Advanced Physical and Arms training courses. He was travelling across the length and breadth of the country to coordinate and supervise such Arms Training Camps.

Ibrahim Puthanathani K has been charged under sections 120B, 121A, 122, 153A of IPC, sections 13, 18, 18A, 18B of the UA (P) Act today. The NIA has also invoked additional charges under sections 38, 39 of the UA (P) Act against the PFI, as an organization.
