

CNR No. DLNE01-000718-2021

SC No. 98/21

State v. Dinesh etc.

FIR No. 79/20

PS Gokalpuri

11.07.2023 (At 12:20 PM)

Present: Sh. Nitin Rai Sharma, ld. Special PP for the State.
Accused Dinesh @ Michael, Sahil @ Babu, Tinku and Sandeep @ Mogli, have been produced from J/C.

Accused Vikas Kashyap, in person on bail.

Accused Sonu @ Golu Kashyap absent.

Sh. Rakshpal Singh, ld. counsel for accused Sandeep @ Mogli as well as ld. Amicus Curiae for accused Sahil, Dinesh and Tinku.

Sh. Sunil Kumar Verma, ld. counsel for accused Vikas Kashyap and Sonu @ Golu Kashyap.

Since morning, Ct. Vipin and Insp. Jagdish Yadav, are present.

Accused Sonu is absent today. In the morning, passover was sought on the grounds that ld. counsel for accused Sonu was on his way to the court. Ld. counsel for Sonu has appeared and moved an application seeking exemption for accused Sonu under his signature. It is stated in the application that Sonu has gone to the Yatra of Amarnath Ji and therefore, he did not appear today. Ld. counsel after coming to know about Ct.
Vipin being witness to identification of accused persons, seeks adjournment also.

Heard and perused. Today's date was announced to all the accused well in advance. Accused Sonu despite having knowledge of today's date, opted to go out of Delhi that too without seeking any such permission. Thus, it is well apparent that despite having knowledge, without making any such arrangement for proceedings being conducted even in his absence, this accused is absent today. The given reason is also not a reason which can be treated to be a case of exigency. Rather, it is a case of pre planned journey. In these circumstances, I am not satisfied with the reasons for absence of accused Sonu, which is also causing adjournment in the case today.

For causing adjournment in the case today out of a deliberate action, a cost of Rs.5,000/- is imposed upon accused Sonu and at the same time he is asked through his counsel to show cause to explain why not his bail be cancelled for breaching the terms of his personal bond and deliberate absence on this date.

Witnesses are discharged unexamined.

Put up for RPE on date already fixed i.e. 13.07.2023.
