Heard arguments of learned counsel for the defendants on the application under Order VII Rule XI of CPC. Now, the arguments advanced by Mrs Tasneem Ahmadi, learned counsel for the defendants, on the application for rejection of plaint, have been concluded in OSUT Nos. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 9, 12, 13, 16 and 18 of 2023.

(A-43) Additional objections have been filed by Sri Prabhash Pandey, learned counsel for the plaintiffs. Sri Vishnu Shanker Jain (through Video Conferencing), learned counsel for the plaintiffs, elaborately argued about the necessity and relevancy of filing these additional objections at this moment when the Court is hearing learned counsel for the defendants on the application for rejection of plaint.

Additional objections (A-43) are taken on record.

Learned counsel for the defendant may file reply to the additional objections by the date fixed.

Learned counsel for the defendants may argue in the light of the additional objections and their reply on the date fixed in OSUT No.1 of 2023.

In OSUT No.4 of 2023, during the argument, Sri Vinay Sharma, learned counsel for the plaintiffs, submitted that inadvertently, the pen drive which was provided to the defendants is not similar to that which has been filed on record by the plaintiffs.

Sri Manish Goel, learned Senior Advocate, assisting the Court as Amicus Curia, submitted that the pen drive on which any of the parties relies must be filed with # Code algorithm.

Sri Vinay Sharma, learned counsel for the plaintiffs submitted that an opportunity may be granted to him to file the pen drive with # Code algorithm.

One set of pen drive with # Code algorithm be provided to learned counsel for the defendants by the date fixed. An affidavit be also filed by the plaintiffs certifying the authentication of the pen drive.

In OSUT No.5 of 2023, an application (A-11) is moved to close the opportunity of filing objections against the application for rejection of plaint. Copy of the said application has not yet been provided to learned counsel for the plaintiffs.

In OSUT No.11 of 2023, Sri Jawahar Yadav, learned counsel for plaintiff no.2-Naresh Kumar Yadav, appeared and submitted that a short time may be given to him to file objection to the application under Order VII Rule XI of CPC.

Objections may be filed by the date fixed.

In OSUT No.15 of 2023, a reply (A-14) has been filed by the plaintiffs against the application under Order VII Rule XI of CPC.

Learned counsel appearing for the defendants submitted that she may be given an opportunity to file reply thereof.

Reply may be filed by the date fixed.
