ORDER

Being aggrieved by the order of dismissal passed in Crl.M.P.No.2220 of 2023 in Crime No.350 of 2023 dated 18.12.2023 passed by the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Karimangalam, Dharmapuri, the petitioner herein has preferred this Criminal Revision Case.

2. A petition was filed under Section 451 of Cr.P.C in Crime No.350 of 2023 of Karimangalam Police Station under Section 394 altered to 120(B) and 397 of IPC by the revision petitioner stating that she is the owner of MARUTI V.BREZZA LXI bearing Registration No.KL47K2205 and the said vehicle was seized in the above said crime number and produced before the above said Court. Accused are her friends and for their personal purpose the vehicle was taken. The said vehicle was seized by the police on the ground that the said vehicle was used for the commission of offence under Section 397 IPC and produced before the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Karimangalam, Dharmapuri District and it was in C.P.No.170 of 2023 (Form 95 -2 item No.5).

Crl.R.C.No.359 of 2024

3. The learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate upon consideration concluded that the said MARUTI V.BREZZA LXI car has been used for commission of the offence under Section 397 IPC in Crime No.350 of 2023 of Karimangalam Police Station and if the vehicle is handed over to the petitioner, She might alter its nature and fail to produce the vehicle at the time of trial and chose to dismiss the application.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner vehemently contended that the petitioner who is the owner of the vehicle had given to the accused for the personal use as they are her friends and the petitioner did not involve in any offence. He would further contend that if the vehicle is kept without use, its value will be diminished.

5. Per contra, Mr.C.E.Pratap, learned Additional Public Prosecutor strenuously argued that the said vehicle has been used for commission of offence under Section 397 IPC and hence the learned District cum Judicial Magistrate, Karimangalam has rightly dismissed the petitioner for return of vehicle.

6. On careful perusal of the records, it appears that the said vehicle MARUTI V.BREZZA LXI bearing Registration No. KL47K2205 is said to have been used for the commission of offence in Crime No.350 of 2023 of Karimangalam Police Station. As per the Registration Certificate enclosed, it stands in the name of the revision petitioner.

7. The Court may pass suitable orders with regard to return of property.

8. For clear understanding Section 451 of Cr.P.C is extracted hereunder:-

“451. Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial in certain cases. - When any property is produced before any criminal court during any inquiry or trial, the court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the inquiry or trial, and, if the property is subject to speedy and natural decay, or if it is otherwise expedient so to do, the court may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, 'property' includes -

(a) property of any kind or document which is produced before the court or which is in its custody.

(b) any property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence.”

9. In Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujarat reported in (2002) 10 SCC 283, the Hon'ble Supreme court held that it is of no use to keep such seized vehicles at the police station for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate order immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the vehicles if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of the applications for return of such vehicles.”

10. The petitioner is not an accused in the said case. If the vehicle is kept in open place, unused for a long period its value will definitely get diminished. This Court is of the considered view that the interests of justice will be served, if the vehicle is ordered to be released to the petitioner on certain conditions. The respondent police is directed to hand over the said car bearing registration No. KL47K2205 to the petitioner after compliance of the below mentioned condition Nos.(i) to (ii) :

- i. that the petitioner shall execute, a personal bond for a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- (Rupees two lakhs only) and with two
