1. Present writ petition is filed by Dr. Ashok Nigam, Advocate who is Chairman of the Elders Committee and one of the leading and senior lawyer of this Court.
2. The grievance is that in September, 2004, a scuffle took place between lawyers of this Court and police personnel and hence, compensation should be paid for the loss/injuries suffered by the lawyers and appropriate action be taken.
3. The matter is quiet old and at the outset the Court inquired from Dr. Ashok Nigam, learned Senior Advocate/petitioner with regard to the compensation he expects. Showing his large heartedness Dr. Ashok Nigam, learned Senior Advocate/petitioner states that he would accept any compensation fixed by this Court as the fight was more with regard to honour of lawyers.
4. Looking into the seniority stature and respect Dr. Ashok Nigam, learned Senior Advocate/petitioner commands as a token of respect, we direct respondents to pay Rs.1/- as compensation to the petitioner.
5. With the aforesaid directions, the writ petition is disposed of.
