

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

CIVIL ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

Transfer Petition(Civil) No.2453/2024

ANJALI

Petitioner(s)

VERSUS

CHETAN

Respondent(s)

WITH

T.P.(Crl.) No. 800/2024 &
T.P.(C) No. 3481/2024O R D E R

1. Since the issues raised in all the Captioned Transfer Petitions are by and large the same and the parties are also the same, those were taken up for hearing analogously and are being disposed of by this common order.
2. By way of these petitions filed under Section 25 CPC, the petitioner - wife seeks transfer of (i) Marriage Petition No.269/2014 titled "Chetan Kumar Lakhwani vs. Anjali Vinaykumar Patil filed by the respondent (husband) pending before the Civil Judge, Senior Division, Sangamner, District Ahmednagar, Maharashtra to the Court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Barwaha, District Khargone, Madhya Pradesh, (ii) Crl. M.A. No. 417/2024 titled "Smt. Rajni Kumar Lakhwani vs. Anjali Vinaykumar Patil" filed by the respondent - mother-in-law pending before the Court of Judicial Magistrate Class-I, Sangamner, District Ahmednagar, Maharashtra to the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Barwaha, District Khargone, Madhya Pradesh and (iii) Spl. C.S. No. 127/2024 titled "Kumar Teumal Lakhwani & Anr. vs. Ramsare Yadav &

Ors. filed by the respondent Nos. 1 and 2, pending before the Court of 2nd Joint Civil Judge Senior Division, Sangamner, Maharashtra to the Court of Additional District Judge, Barwaha, District Khargone, Madhya Pradesh.

3. This is one of those unfortunate litigations wherein within one year of marriage, the wife had to leave her matrimonial home as according to her, she was being incessantly harassed by her husband and also her in-laws.

4. The marriage between the parties i.e. Anjali and Chetan was solemnized on 8-5-2020. Within no time, the marriage got into trouble. The wife i.e. Anjali had to leave her matrimonial home and since then she has been residing at her parental home.

5. The relations must have gone so sour that as many as 17 different proceedings have been instituted by the parties against each other including criminal prosecutions as usual.

6. Fortunately, no child is born in the wedlock.

7. Today, when the matters were taken up for hearing, we suggested to both the learned counsel appearing for the parties that there is no point in contesting all these litigations, as these litigations will go on for years and years together. The parties are young. They must look ahead towards their future. If the marriage has failed, that is not the end of the life for both. They must look ahead and start a new life.

8. In such circumstances, referred to above, we have been requested by both the learned counsel appearing for the parties to invoke our jurisdiction under Article 142 of the Constitution of India and dissolve the marriage.

9. The marriage between the parties is ordered to be dissolved in exercise of our jurisdiction under Article 142 of the Constitution.

10. We have been provided with a list of pending cases between the wife, - husband and the other relatives.

11. The list reads thus:-

12. As we have dissolved the marriage, all the pending proceedings between the parties, referred to above, stand terminated. Even if there is any other proceedings not included in the list, the same stands terminated.

13. The parties are requested to now live peacefully and proceed further in life.

14. With the aforesaid, all the three Transfer Petitions stand disposed of.

15. It is understood that none of the parties shall raise any other claims in future.

16. At this stage, the learned counsel appearing for the father-in-law pointed out that in the Suit instituted by him, he has paid court fees of about Rs.60,000/. He prays that the amount of Rs.60,000/- be ordered to be refunded.

17. It is not possible for us to order refund. We do not know at what stage the suit is. It all depends at what stage the suit is so that the Court concerned can order refund of it. However, we keep it open for the father-in-law to apply before the Civil Court concerned for refund of the court fees.
