convict.
Sh. Gajinder Kumar, Ms. Kiran Jai, Sh. Chandra Shekhar and Ms. Somya Arya, Ld. Counsels for respondent/complainant Sh. V. K. Saxena.

Instead of appearing before the Court and to comply with order on sentence dated 08/04/2025, the convict is absent and deliberately failed to comply with order on sentence and to avail of the benefit of probation subject to furnishing of compensation amount.

The intention of convict Medha Patkar is apparent that she is deliberately violating the Court order; she is avoiding to appear before the Court and also avoiding to accept the terms of sentence passed against her. There is no order of suspension of sentence passed by this Court on 08/04/2025.

The Court is left with no option than to enforce the production of convict Medha Patkar through coercive order.

Issue NBWs against convict Medha Patkar, through office of Commissioner of Police, Delhi Police, for next date.

Put up for report on NBWs and further proceedings on 03/05/2025.

CNR NO. DLSE01-007702-2024 --2--
CRL. APPEAL No. 247/2024
U/S. 415(3) BNSS, 2023
MEDHA PATKAR Vs. V. K. SAXENA

On the next date, if the convict fails to comply with the terms of order on sentence dated 08/04/2025, the Court will be constrained to reconsider the benevolent sentence and will have to alter the order on sentence.

An application has been filed on behalf of convict Medha Patkar for adjournment of the case in view of pendency of criminal revision petition No.129 of 2025, filed before Hon'ble High Court. The application has no substance; there is no direction in order dated 22/04/2025 of Hon'ble High Court that convict Medha Patkar is not required to comply with order on sentence dated 08/04/2025 passed by this Court. The present application is frivolous and mischievous and is only calculated to hoodwink the Court. The present application is, therefore, dismissed.
